FLAGS

1. In countries where it is the custom for diplomatic and consular representatives to fly their national flags over their official premises or private residences, afloat, on cars, or, where appropriate, on aircraft, Her Majesty's Foreign Service officers hoist the relevant British diplomatic or consular flag.

2. The usual size of the flag to be used by diplomatic and consular officers is as follows :—

For use on shore ... ..	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet
For use on shore when specially ordered ...	4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet
	12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet
For use on boats ... ..	3 breadths, i.e., 4 feet 6 inches by 2 feet 3 inches
For use on board ship ... ..	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet
For use on cars ... ..	12 inches by 8 inches
For use on aircraft .. .	18 inches by 9 inches

At posts where the prevalence of high winds makes large flags unsuitable, flags of four breadths only are flown.

3. The flag to be used by Her Majesty's diplomatic representatives whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, or in cars or, where appropriate, on aircraft, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland. The use of this flag does not apply to the aircraft of the R.A.F. for which Queen's Regulations and Air Ministry Instructions provide that the R.A.F. ensign may be flown on their aircraft when carrying H.M. Ambassadors outside the United Kingdom.

4. The flag to be used by Her Majesty's consular officers ashore to distinguish their official premises or private residences or cars or, where appropriate, aircraft, is the Union with the St. Edward's Crown in the centre on a white shield. The use of the aircraft flag does not apply to aircraft of the R.A.F. for which Queen's Regulations and Air Ministry Instructions do not provide that any flag may be flown when carrying H.M. Consular Officers.

5. The flag to be used by Her Majesty's consular officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, of three breadths or, if a larger flag is desired, of four breadths, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly, that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must in boats be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign. The consular flag is hoisted in boats only and not in ships except when a salute is given to the consular officer concerned, when it is hoisted at the fore.

6. The flag should be flown ashore on the British anniversaries enumerated in the list below. It should also be flown over official premises or private residences at ports during the stay in port of one of Her Majesty's ships.

7. On the occasion of local official celebrations or mourning, local usages should be observed, it being as a general rule desirable that the flag should be flown (at the mast-head or at half-mast according to circumstances) on all occasions when this would be regarded as complimentary to the local authorities or to countries locally represented, or when omission to do so might give offence (e.g., on the accession or death of a foreign Sovereign or on the occasion of the birth, marriage or death of a member of the Royal Family of a country locally represented; or on a Presidential Inauguration, etc.).

8. Foreign Service officers may also fly their flags at any time if they think it desirable, paying due regard to the views of the local authorities and to the practice followed by their foreign colleagues.

9. On the occasion of the death of a member of the British Royal Family the flag should be flown at half-mast from the date of the death until after the funeral.

PENSIONS

The following is a brief summary of the main pension provisions applicable to established members of the Foreign Service. Superannuation law and practice are closely controlled by Acts of Parliament and Service Regulations, and this summary is not intended to be an interpretation of law, or a complete exposition of practice.

No person has an absolute right to pension, and the decision of the Treasury is final in all matters concerning superannuation payments. Amounts which have been granted, or might otherwise be granted, may be reduced or forfeited altogether, in cases of demerit.

Established members of the Foreign Service, with any exceptions as shown below, are eligible for pension under the Superannuation Acts, which govern Civil Servants' pensions. The principal Acts are those of 1859, 1909, 1935, and 1949.

The 1859 Act provided for a pension equal to 1/60th of annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years. This Act covers officers who did not elect, or were rejected, for the 1909 Act.

The 1909 Act provided for a pension of 1/80th of annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years' together with a lump sum of 1/30th of annual salary (actual or average, as indicated below) for each year of service up to 45 years. The lump sum is increased by one half per cent. for each year of service before the 1909 Act (men), or the 1935 Act (women). The Act also provides for a gratuity equal to at least one year's salary (actual or average) to the legal personal representative of an officer dying in harness after not less than 5 years' service. This Act covers officers not under the 1859 Act.

The 1935 Act made the 3-year "averaging" of salary universal, and the lump sum was increased to 3/80ths of average annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years. Officers then serving were given the option to remain on the old basis, which laid down that annual salary on which pension and gratuity are calculated is the actual salary at the date of retirement if the officer has been in the same grade or on the same salary for three years preceding retirement; if he has not, the average salary during the three years preceding retirement is taken as the annual salary for pension purposes.

The 1935 Act enables an officer retiring for reasons other than ill health, subject to certain conditions, to surrender a part of pension to secure an annuity to wife or husband, or one named dependant. The annuity varies according to the ages of the pensioner and the beneficiary as shown in tables prepared by the Government Actuary.

The principal provision of the 1949 Act is for widows' and children's pensions. The widow's pension would amount to one-third of the deceased officer's pension if he had retired when he died, with a minimum of £26 a year. The children's pension would vary between one quarter of the widow's pension (for one child) and an amount equal to the widow's pension (for four or more children, or three or more children if no widow's pension is paid). The children's pension would be payable only during childhood and full-time education, except in the case of incapacitated children. The scheme is contributory, by deduction of 1½% from annual salary or by abatement of the lump sum payable on death or retirement, or by a combination of both methods. It is compulsory for entrants after 13th July, 1949, but optional for then existing officers. A woman officer, if her husband is dependent on her, may contract into the scheme. Provision is also made for a contributory scheme to cover dependent relatives.

The Act makes various amendments. With certain exceptions officers retiring on health grounds with more than 10 but less than 20 years' reckonable service, may receive pension and lump sum based on 20 years' service. Officers will be able to retire at or after 50 years of age, without loss of pension and lump sum at the normal retiring age of 60. They may also be called upon to retire, if this is in the public interest, at or after 50 years of age, with earned pension and lump sum.

Under the Diplomatic Salaries Act of 1869, the Treasury could grant pensions of defined amounts according to rank, subject to a minimum period of 15 years since the officer's first Commission, and of 10 years' service abroad.

Any existing member of the Diplomatic Service at the time of the passing of the Superannuation (Diplomatic Service) Act of 1929 could opt to remain under the Diplomatic Salaries Act, 1869. Otherwise that Act ceased to have effect, and the Superannuation Acts 1834 to 1919 were applied to persons then in the Diplomatic Service, with the addition to the lump sum of one half per cent. for each completed year of service up to the passing of the 1929 Act. New entrants to the Diplomatic Service after the passing of the Act came under its provisions.

Under the Foreign Service Acts of 1943 and 1960 pension and lump sum may be granted to an officer of grade not lower than Grade 8 of Branch A or Grade 4 of Branch B who, having served for not less than 10 years, is retired before the normal retiring age, having regard to his qualifications and conditions existing in the Service. In such cases special increases of the pension and the lump sum may be awarded.

Previously where the pension granted to an officer prematurely retired under the 1943 Act had been enhanced by "special increases" there was no provision for a contribution to be made in respect of the resulting increase to the potential widow's or dependant's pension. The 1960 Act arranges for this provision.

As a general rule, for entrants after March 1, 1948 pension will be abated to take account of the retiring pension under National Insurance provisions at age 65 (men) and 60 (women).

A minimum of 10 years' actual service is an essential qualification for pension.

The normal retiring age is 60. For officers of the former China Consular Service who continue to serve at posts normally staffed from that Service, the retiring age is 55. (Special provision is made for unavoidable absence from such posts during the war period).

Service at posts specially scheduled for the purpose is reckoned for pensions as 1½ times actual service. It will enable an officer to retire before the age of 60, but not before 55, three months' abatement of age being allowed for each year of such service.

As from 1st January, 1919, temporary service prior to establishment before 14th July, 1949, counts as to one half for pension calculation. Such temporary service subsequent to 14th July 1949, will count in full.

Retirement on the ground of ill health is subject to incapacity to render further service. A gratuity not exceeding 1/12th of average annual salary for each year of service may be awarded on retirement through ill health before the completion of 10 years' service. A gratuity of 3/80ths of average annual salary for each year of service (after two years' service) may also be awarded.

Officers retiring before the normal retiring age may be required, subject to fitness, to serve again.

In the event of an officer being injured in the actual discharge of his duties, and without his own default, and by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, a gratuity or annual allowance may be awarded to him or if he dies from the injury, to his widow (while unmarried) and children, and to his mother (while unmarried), or, if his mother is dead, his father, if wholly or mainly dependent upon him.

In the case of a female officer, the above provision for a widow would apply to a dependent widowed husband.

Marriage gratuities may be granted to women officers who resign on marriage after 6 years' service. These amount to one month's pay for each year of established service, subject to a maximum of 12 months' pay.

A gratuity may be awarded on death or resignation of an unestablished officer after not less than five years' service on the following scale:

- |  |                  |
|--|------------------|
| (i) For each year of service up to five years                              | One week's pay,  |
| (ii) For each year of service in excess of five years and up to ten years. | Two weeks' pay,  |
| (iii) For each year of service in excess of ten years.                     | Four weeks' pay, |

provided that no gratuity shall exceed in total amount, one year's pay.

For income tax purposes pension is regarded as earned income.

PRECEDENCE

1. Officers of Her Majesty's Foreign Service will take precedence inter se according to their grade in the Service.

2. Officers of the same grade will take precedence according to the dates of their respective appointments to the grade.

3. For the purposes of the local Diplomatic List the order of seniority derived from the application of the general principle referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 will be followed.

4. The officer normally designated to act as Chargé d'Affaires in the absence of the Head of the Mission will be the senior officer handling political work.

5. Service Attachés at Her Majesty's Diplomatic Missions will rank with but immediately after the Foreign Service officer normally designated to act as Chargé d'Affaires in the absence of the Head of the Mission and other career members of the Foreign Service of the same grade as that officer: except that Foreign Service Officers of Grade 5 holding the rank of Minister will in all cases take precedence before Service Attachés.

6. Assistant Service Attachés will rank with but immediately after Foreign Service officers of Grade 8 (Second Secretaries): except at posts where such Assistant Service Attachés are the only resident Service Representatives, when they will take the precedence indicated in the preceding paragraph.

7. Non-Service Specialist Attachés and Assistant Specialist Attachés will take precedence according to their grade in the public service with but after Foreign Service officers of corresponding grade, but in no circumstances before the Foreign Service officer normally designated to act as Chargé d'Affaires in the absence of the Head of Mission, and without prejudice to the precedence of Service Attachés and Assistant Service Attachés laid down in paragraphs 5 and 6. As between themselves, Specialist Attachés and Assistant Specialist Attachés of equal grade will rank in the order of their dates of appointment.

The foregoing does not apply to Labour Attachés whose position shall be as stated in paragraph 18.

8. Precedence at consular posts shall be decided by the grade of the Foreign Service officer concerned, and by the date of his appointment to that Grade.

9. At both diplomatic and consular posts—

Officers of Grade B.1. will rank with but after officers of Grade A.6.

Officers of Grade B.2 will rank with but after officers of Grade A.7.

Officers of Grade B.3. will rank after officers of Grade B.2.

Officers of Grade B.4 will rank with but after officers of Grade A.8.

Officers of Grade B.5 will rank with but after Officers of Grade A.9.

10. A Foreign Service officer performing the duties of Consul-General will take precedence, at his own post over a visiting officer of Grade A.6.

11. A Foreign Service officer performing the duties of Consul will take precedence, at the post of which he is in charge, over a visiting officer of Grade A.7.

12. These rules (at paragraphs 10 and 11 above) do not, of course, apply to Foreign Service officers acting as Heads of Consular Sections in His Majesty's Missions, nor do they apply in the case where the visiting officer is at the time Chargé d'Affaires.

13. The general precedence of diplomatic agents is governed by the Regulations annexed to the Vienna Congress Treaty of 9th June, 1815, which together with the addition embodied in the Protocol of the Congress of Aix la Chapelle of 21st November, 1818, are printed below.

14. The precedence which consular officers resident at the same post should take among themselves is decided by the Consular Body concerned, with whom it rests to designate who should occupy the position of doyen. As a general rule, consular officers take precedence among their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of their Exequaturs or of their recognition by the local authorities.

15. The comparative precedence of officers holding consular rank and of officers of Her Majesty's Armed Forces is shown below.

16. Rules for the relative precedence of United Kingdom and Commonwealth diplomatic and consular officers on the occasion of visits of United Kingdom naval units or ships of Commonwealth navies to foreign ports are given below.

17. Officers of Her Majesty's Foreign Service holding local or acting rank will take precedence according to that rank, but below officers holding the same substantive rank.

18. The diplomatic rank accorded to Labour Attachés will be equated to the appropriate Foreign Service grade at the post where they are attached; this rank shall not be higher than that of Counsellor nor than that of the Chargé d'Affaires designate. For formal purposes they should be referred to as "Counsellor (Labour)," "First Secretary (Labour)" or "Second Secretary (Labour)." They should be shown as such on the local Diplomatic List and should not be placed with the other Attachés, but after the members of Her Majesty's Foreign Service of the same grade.

19. When Foreign Service officers (and certain temporary officers) who are junior to a third secretary are included in the local Diplomatic List, they should be given the diplomatic rank of junior attaché. This title is to be used in order to avoid confusion between the old use of the word "attaché" which described the status of officers now to be styled "junior attachés" and the new meaning the word has come to bear, namely, the status of a member of a Government Department other than the Foreign Office, who, by virtue of his position as a representative in a Diplomatic Mission of that Department, ranks immediately after the Service Attachés. The names of junior attachés should appear at the end of the local Diplomatic List.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes.—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussion which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between OFFICERS holding CONSULAR RANK and OFFICERS of the ARMED SERVICES

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Major-Generals, Air Vice-Marsals.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N. Colonels, and Group Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders, Majors, and Squadron Leaders.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants R.N., Captains in the Army and Flight Lieutenants.

The officer in charge of a consular post during the absence of the titular holder of the post will take for the time being the rank of that officer for this purpose.

VISITS between OFFICERS of H.M. FLEET and H.M. DIPLOMATIC and CONSULAR REPRESENTATIVES—ORDER of PRECEDENCE

With reference to Q.R. and A.I. (1943), Articles 97 and 98, the following information concerning questions of Precedence which may arise on the occasion of visits of units of H.M. Fleet to foreign and Commonwealth ports at which Commonwealth as well as United Kingdom diplomatic and/or consular officers are stationed, is promulgated for guidance.

2. When United Kingdom ships are making a visit, United Kingdom diplomatic and/or consular officers should, irrespective of their seniority in the matter of rank or of residence at their posts, take precedence of their Commonwealth colleagues. Conversely, in the case of visits of ships of a Commonwealth Navy to ports at which are stationed diplomatic and/or consular officers of that Commonwealth country, United Kingdom Officers should yield precedence to them irrespective of seniority or rank or residence.

3. Visits may be paid from time to time by ships belonging to one Commonwealth country to ports at which are stationed diplomatic and/or consular officers not of that country but of other Commonwealth countries. In cases of this kind, United Kingdom Officers will not raise objection if their Commonwealth colleagues claim precedence in virtue of seniority.

PROPERTY OF HER MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT

REGULATIONS AFFECTING THE CARE AND ACCOUNTING OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY PROVIDED EITHER BY THE FOREIGN OFFICE, MINISTRY OF WORKS OR STATIONERY OFFICE ARE SET OUT IN DETAIL IN CHAPTERS 28 AND 29 OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE INSTRUCTIONS.

UNIFORMS

Details of the approved Foreign Service uniform, to be worn at diplomatic and consular posts alike, are given in Annex 1. Annex 2 gives particulars of the uniform approved for Foreign Service wear in hot climates.

2. Officers in possession of an old-style diplomatic or consular uniform may continue to use it in accordance with the classification in the Schedule in Annex 3. It is not the intention, however, that uniforms of the earlier style should remain in use indefinitely, i.e., by officers other than their present owners; and officers requiring new uniforms, or alterations to those of earlier pattern already in their possession, should procure uniforms of the new style or have their present uniforms converted to the latter where this is practicable.

3. New entrants should defer obtaining a uniform until they have passed their probationary period, unless specially authorised to procure one by Personnel Department, who will advise officers of the type of uniform they will need. (See also paragraph 5 below.)

4. Officers in possession of the existing consular uniform should provide themselves with uniform of the new style on promotion to a higher grade or transfer to a diplomatic appointment, unless conversion of the present uniform proves practicable.

5. The Foreign Service Regulations (Regulation No. 17, Section 3) lay down the conditions under which the cost of buying a new uniform, or of altering one already in an officer's possession, may be recovered from public funds. Officers should therefore consult Establishment and Organisation Department before incurring expenditure on this account.

6. Uniform is worn only during tenure of office, or, on retirement, by special permission, the grant of which is regulated as follows:—

(i) An officer of the Foreign Service may be granted permission to wear the uniform appropriate to his grade on retirement or resignation, provided that—

(a) he has served for not less than 10 years; and

(b) there is in the view of the Secretary of State no special reason for withholding permission.

(ii) An officer with less than 10 years' service who has occupied a post of high importance, e.g., as Ambassador or Under-Secretary of State, may request the Secretary of State to submit to The Queen an application that he may be permitted to wear his uniform on retirement or resignation.

7. Naval, Military and Air Attachés on the staffs of Her Majesty's Missions abroad wear the uniform of their respective Services as prescribed by the Dress Regulations of the latter.

8. The Queen's Foreign Service Messengers are permitted to wear the Foreign Service uniform of the 4th Class, and are furnished by the Foreign Office with a badge for use when travelling, which may also be worn with the uniform. The badge must be returned to the Foreign Office in good condition on the retirement of the Messenger from the service.

9. Annex 4 gives particulars of Evening Dress that may be worn at Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations abroad at the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister at official dinners and parties (a) in the presence of members of the British Royal Family who are Royal Highnesses, and (b), if in accordance with local custom, in the presence of members of the Royal Family of the country in which the Ambassador or Minister is accredited. This dress is never worn in the United Kingdom.

10. Consular Agents may wear the Foreign Service uniform of the 5th Class. No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

11. Officers at consular posts remain at liberty to wear on suitable occasions, should they so desire, the white evening dress composed as follows: white drill mess jacket with three small gilt buttons on each side of the front and one, two or three small gilt buttons for vice-consuls, consuls and consuls-general respectively along the outer seam of each cuff; white waistcoat with three small gilt buttons; white trousers.

12. The Foreign Service uniform will be worn only by members of the Service who hold Commissions of Appointment from the Crown. No uniforms other than those referred to should be worn during Foreign Service employment without special permission from the Secretary of State.

13. The occasions on which uniform is worn vary from post to post and depend to a large extent on local custom. Uniform will, however, normally be worn by Her Majesty's Representative when presenting his credentials, and also by those members of his staff who accompany him on this occasion. It will also be worn at official functions and ceremonies (depending on local custom) and on other State occasions when considered appropriate by the Head of Mission.

14. Uniform should also be worn by Her Majesty's Representatives when calling officially upon (i) Flag Officers and Commodores on their first visit when newly appointed, or when their ship or squadron is paying a formal visit, and (ii) Captains when in command of a single ship or squadron paying a formal visit.

On receiving visits from Flag Officers or Officers Commanding Her Majesty's Ships, however, Her Majesty's Representatives may use their discretion as to the dress to be worn, but if they do not wear uniform they should wear a morning coat, with Star in cases where the representative has received the 1st or 2nd Class of one of the British Orders of Knighthood.

An Ambassador or Minister accompanying a Naval Commander-in-Chief on a visit to pay his respects to the Head of a State should wear uniform. This, as in the circumstances contemplated above, may be the white uniform, if appropriate to local conditions.

15. At consular posts uniform will be worn on State occasions, on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships, and at Naval Courts.

The white uniform may be worn at any post where the use of such uniforms by officials is customary.

FOREIGN SERVICE REGULATIONS

REGULATION No. 1

HER MAJESTY'S FOREIGN SERVICE

The Foreign Service is composed of the following branches. Members of Branches A, B, C and T are liable to serve in the United Kingdom or abroad and when required. Members of Branch D serve posts abroad only.

1. Branch A, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of administrative duties.
2. Branch B, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service mainly for the performance of executive and clerical duties.
3. Branch C, consisting of women appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of secretarial, shorthand-typing and typing duties.
4. Branch D, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of messengerial and guard duties in diplomatic and consular posts abroad.
5. Branch T, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of technical duties.

MARRIAGE

1. Any male member of the Foreign Service who proposes to marry a person who has not at all times since his birth been either a British subject or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland must notify the Head of Personnel Department of his intention. The Secretary of State reserves the right to inform the officer concerned that, if he marries such a person, he will have to resign.

Comment:—

Even when the Secretary of State does not adopt the course of calling on an officer to resign under this regulation, a marriage to a person who has not at all times since his birth been either a British subject or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland may well diminish an officer's utility as a British representative abroad and limit the number of posts at which he can be employed. Such a marriage may result at some later stage in the officer's career in there being no post in the Foreign Service to which he can properly be appointed. In this case every endeavour will be made to find other official employment for him, but failing that, it may be necessary to call for his resignation, or retirement.

2. Any woman member of the Foreign Service who proposes to marry must notify the Head of Personnel Department of her intention. As a rule a woman member of the Service will be required to resign upon marriage, but the Secretary of State reserves the right in special circumstances to permit her to continue as a member of the Service either unconditionally or subject to conditions.

Comment:—

This regulation applies to women members of the Service and to marriages contracted by them whether to British subjects or to other persons.

3. Any woman member of the Foreign Service resigning on marriage may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State and with the approval of the Treasury, be granted a gratuity.

To qualify for an award a minimum service of six years is required: previous unestablished service reckons towards this period, but not for the purpose of calculating the gratuity.

REGULATION No. 3

DIVORCE

If a member of the Foreign Service becomes involved in a matrimonial suit which may, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, bring discredit upon that member or upon the Service, the Secretary of State may call upon him to resign. A member of the Service who becomes involved in a divorce suit must therefore notify the Head of Personnel Department of the facts of the case at the earliest possible moment.

REGULATION No. 4

ACCEPTANCE OF FOREIGN DECORATIONS

1. Generally speaking, members of the Foreign Service, like other persons in the service of the Crown, are not eligible for The Queen's permission to accept and wear foreign decorations and medals. Such permission may, however, be given in the case of decorations conferred for distinguished services in saving or attempting to save life, or, if such a case should arise, services performed by a member of the Foreign Service while lent to a foreign Government, if he is paid by them and not from British public funds during the period of the loan.

2. A restricted form of permission may be granted in the case of decorations conferred in recognition of personal attention on a foreign Sovereign or Head of State, or a member of a foreign Royal Family, on the occasion of State or official visits by such personages, in the case of decorations conferred upon members of Her Majesty's Missions abroad when The Queen pays a State visit to a foreign country, and in the case of decorations conferred upon members of the Foreign Service when forming part of a Special Mission when The Queen is represented at a foreign Coronation, Wedding, Funeral, or similar occasion, or upon any diplomatic representative when specially accredited to represent Her Majesty on such an occasion (but not on the members of his staff.)

3. The Queen's Regulations do not contemplate the grant of any permission for the acceptance and wearing of foreign decorations offered to Her Majesty's Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when leaving, even on final retirement.

4. In any case in which a member of the Foreign Service learns that the bestowal of a foreign decoration upon him is contemplated, his informant should be told of the desire of Her Majesty's Government to be consulted through the diplomatic channel before any final decision to confer it is taken, and also, if the case is clearly of such a character, that their consent is not likely to be forthcoming. In no case should the grant of The Queen's permission be assumed.

5. The foregoing applies equally to medals, including State decorations not carrying membership of foreign Orders of Chivalry. Medals for saving or attempting to save life, whether awarded by the Head or Government of a foreign State or by private life-saving societies or institutions, may be accepted and worn without restriction.

6. The wives of members of the Foreign Service are regarded as subject to the same general disabilities as their husbands where the acceptance of foreign honours is concerned.

REGULATION No. 5

PRESENTATIONS

A member of the Foreign Service may not receive gifts or presentations, whether in the shape of money, goods, free passages, or other benefits, from any person in recognition of services rendered by virtue of his official position, or, in any case, from foreigners resident in the foreign country where that member is serving, without having first secured the permission of the Secretary of State.

Comment:—

This Regulation, which also applies to the families of members of the Foreign Service, should not be regarded as applying to small personal gifts such as may be received from colleagues and friends.

REGULATION No. 6

PRIVATE OCCUPATIONS

1. No member of the Foreign Service may, without the permission of the Secretary of State, accept any post in the management of any trading, commercial, industrial, financial or professional firm or company.

Comment:—

Permission under paragraph 1 is only likely to be given in very exceptional cases, for instance, in some cases permission to become a director in a small private company which is confined to members of the officer's family may be given: or occasionally an officer may be permitted temporarily to take some part in the organisation of a firm as executor for a deceased relative until new arrangements for the carrying on of the firm's business can be made.

2.—(a) No member of the Foreign Service may at any time engage in any activity which would in any way tend to impair his usefulness as a public servant.

(b) No member of the Foreign Service may engage in any occupation or undertaking which might in any way conflict with the interests of the Service or be inconsistent with his position as a member of the Foreign Service.

(c) In no circumstances may a member of the Foreign Service make use of his official position to further his private interests and any attempt to do so constitutes a grave disciplinary offence. Furthermore, a member of the Foreign Service commits an offence if he so acts as to create a reasonable suspicion that he has used his official position to further his private interests.

Comment:—

(i) There is, of course, nothing to prevent members of the Service from becoming members of, or occupying posts on the Councils of, charitable or learned societies, provided that their responsibilities in that concern are not serious enough to conflict with the discharge of their official duties and provided also that the activities of these societies are not such as to bring paragraph (2 (a) or (b) of this Regulation into play.

(ii) The Treasury have laid down certain principles governing the receipt by Crown servants of payments for activities which are in some degree connected with their official duties, but not actually part of those duties. These cover the writing of books and articles, broadcasting of talks, lecturing, &c. It is the duty of any member who may have any doubt as to the propriety of undertaking any particular work to consult the Head of Personnel Department.

(iii) Paragraph 2 (c) above is based on the report of the Board of Enquiry appointed by the Prime Minister to investigate certain statements affecting Civil Servants—Cmd. 3037 of 1928. Paragraphs 17, 56 and 58 of this report are reproduced below, but members of the Foreign Service are advised to read the full report.

APPENDIX

Extracts from the Report of the Board of Enquiry appointed by the Prime Minister to Investigate Certain Statements affecting Civil Servants

Paragraph 17

We should be unwilling to lay down any hard-and-fast rule on the subject of gambling transactions by Civil Servants. These may take many forms, from a trifling bet upon a horse race to transactions such as those we have been considering, and the propriety of a Civil Servant engaging in any of them must necessarily depend to some degree upon the circumstances of the case. But of these circumstances, one of the most material to be considered is without doubt the functions of the Department in which he is employed. Thus Civil Servants employed in certain Departments will plainly come under a special obligation to be discreet and careful in all their private financial transactions; the Treasury is pre-eminently one such Department, the Foreign Office is a second, and the Revenue Departments and the Post Office are others. We think that the opportunity of turning official information to private gain is likely to be much less frequent in the Foreign Office than, for instance, in the Treasury, but that such opportunities occur from time to time in most Departments there can be no doubt whatsoever; and where this is so, and indeed we might say, so long as the public, whether rightly or wrongly, believe it to be so, Civil Servants engaged in these Departments cannot and ought not to expose themselves, their Departments or the Civil Service at large to public criticism by gambling or by rash and hazardous speculation. It is unnecessary to elaborate the reasons for a rule of this kind, which we should have thought was elementary and axiomatic.

Paragraph 56

The first duty of a Civil Servant is to give his undivided allegiance to the State at all times and on all occasions when the State has a claim upon his services. With his private activities the State is in general not concerned, so long as his conduct therein is not such as to bring discredit upon the Service of which he is a member. But to say that he is not to subordinate his duty to his private interests, nor to make use of his official position to further those interests, is to say no more than that he must behave with common honesty. The Service exacts from itself a higher standard, because it recognises that the State is entitled to demand that its servants shall not only be honest in fact, but beyond the reach of suspicion of dishonesty. It was laid down by one of His Majesty's Judges in a case some few years ago that it was not merely of some importance but of fundamental importance that in a Court of Law justice should not only be done, but should manifestly and undoubtedly be seen to be done; which we take to mean that public confidence in the administration of justice would be shaken if the least suspicion, however ill-founded, were allowed to arise that the course of legal proceedings could in any way be influenced by improper motives. We apply without hesitation an analogous rule to other branches of the public service. A Civil Servant is not to subordinate his duty to his private interests; but neither is he to put himself in a position where his duty and his interests conflict. He is not to make use of his official position to further those interests; but neither is he so to order his private affairs as to allow the suspicion to arise that a trust has been abused or a confidence betrayed. These obligations are, we do not doubt, universally recognised throughout the whole of the service; if it were otherwise, its public credit would be diminished and its usefulness to the State impaired.

Paragraph 58

Between the regular investment or management of a private fortune on the one hand, and speculative transactions in stocks, exchange or commodities on the other, there are obviously numerous gradations, and it may often be difficult to draw the precise line of demarcation between what is lawful and what is prohibited; it may even be inadvisable to make the attempt, because many things, though lawful, may yet be inexpedient. But some transactions fall indubitably on one side of the line rather than upon the other. It might well be desirable for a Civil Servant in all circumstances to avoid transactions wholly speculative in character; but where he is employed in any Department to which, whether rightly or wrongly, the public attribute the power of obtaining special information, such as the future course of political or financial events likely to affect the rise and fall of markets, then we assert unhesitatingly that participation in such transactions is not only undesirable or inexpedient, but wrong. The knowledge that Civil Servants so employed are engaged in them could not fail to shock public confidence at home, and, especially if matters of foreign exchange are involved, to produce a deplorable effect upon opinion abroad.

INTEREST IN CONTRACTS

1. Any member of the Foreign Service having an interest in a company or partnership or business with which a contract with a Government Office is concluded or may be concluded, must disclose the measure of that interest fully to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration in writing.

2. Any member who has occasion to come in contact in his official capacity with any matter concerning a company, partnership or other business concern in which he has an interest, must disclose that interest to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Regulation do not, however, apply to the mere holding of shares in a public company by a member of the service unless such holding is so great as to give the member a controlling interest in the said company.

REGULATION No. 8

BANKRUPTCY AND INSOLVENCY

1. A member of the Foreign Service who becomes bankrupt or insolvent must at once report the fact to the Secretary of State. If the member is serving abroad, the report should be made through the Head of the post at which he is serving. Failure to report this matter is a serious disciplinary offence.

2. A member who has reported his bankruptcy or insolvency must then at the earliest possible moment submit a complete statement of the facts of his case to the Secretary of State, who will decide, in his discretion, whether the circumstances are such as to call for disciplinary action under Regulation No. 12.

Comment:—

- (1) If the officer who has become bankrupt or insolvent has committed any act of dishonesty or has otherwise acted discredibly, he may be dismissed. The Secretary of State may also take steps to prosecute the offender if there is evidence of the misappropriation of public monies.
- (2) Pending the result of any enquiry into his case, the officer concerned may be continued in his post unless there is prima facie reason to believe that public monies have been or are likely to be involved, in which case he will be suspended.
- (3) In no circumstances may an officer who is bankrupt or insolvent continue to be employed on duties involving the handling of public money.

REGULATION No. 9

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

For the purposes of this Regulation political activities fall into two categories, viz., national and local political activities.

2. The extent to which members of the Foreign Service may engage in or be granted permission to engage in activities falling within one or both of the above-mentioned categories is dependent upon their grades and subject to certain conditions.

3. Any member of the Foreign Service desiring to engage in political activities of either category must consult in advance the Head of Personnel Department.

4. A member of the Foreign Service may not engage in political activity of such a kind as to conflict with the interests of the Service or be inconsistent with his position as a member of the Service.

5. Members of the Foreign Service who advise Ministers and carry out Ministers' policies are bound to retain a proper reticence in matters of public and political controversy so that their impartiality is beyond suspicion. It follows that they should not normally take an active part in any matter which is, or could be, one of public and political controversy, whether or not it is one with which they are officially concerned. If for any reason they feel impelled as private citizens to do so in relation to some particular issue, they should first consult their official superiors and should, if necessary, seek an interview with the Permanent Under-Secretary of State.

REGULATION No. 10

OFFICIAL SECRETS AND CUSTODY OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS

1. It is the duty of every member of the Foreign Service to acquaint himself with the provisions of the Official Secrets Acts of 1911, 1920 and 1939.

2. Any offence under the Official Secrets Acts committed by a member of the Foreign Service is, unless the member establishes extenuating circumstances, a serious disciplinary offence (see Regulation No. 12), exposing the member to disciplinary penalties, whether or not he is also prosecuted for the criminal offence in the courts.

Comment:—

The Official Secrets Acts apply to all confidential documents or information which come into the possession, custody or knowledge of members of the Service. Any improper communication of confidential documents or information is a criminal offence under these Acts, even if the communication is made to another person in Her Majesty's Service. It is also a criminal offence if a member of the Service fails to return official documents if their return is demanded by the Foreign Office (see paragraphs 10 and 11 below and comment thereto as regards members of the Service who have retired and as regards the papers of members of the Service who die). The appendix to this Regulation gives extracts from the Official Secrets Acts containing those portions of them which are likely to be of most importance to members of the Service. Members of the Service, however, are not thereby excused from making themselves acquainted with the provisions of the Acts as a whole. No definition is given in the Acts of "official documents," and there is no rule given in the Acts as to the burden of proof on the question whether a document or information was "entrusted in confidence." So far as the application of the Acts is concerned, it is for the courts to determine their effect, and the Secretary of State has no authority to give an official interpretation of them. On the other hand, so far as disciplinary offences are concerned, it is within the power of the Secretary of State to make his own rules as to what shall be deemed to constitute "official documents" and as to what test shall be applied to determine whether information or documents are confidential. Certain rules for this purpose are inserted in paragraphs 6 and 7 below.

3. Negligence by a member of the Service in the custody, disposal or handling of official documents or in communicating confidential information is a disciplinary offence.

4. Any improper communication of confidential official documents or confidential official information, whether orally or in writing, is a disciplinary offence.

5. Any failure by a member of the Service to return official documents to the Foreign Office, if their return is demanded, is a disciplinary offence.

6. All information and documents falling within the classes specified in paragraph 7 of this Regulation shall, for the purposes of these Regulations and of deciding whether a disciplinary offence has been committed, be deemed to be confidential and official, unless the Secretary of State otherwise decides; and the onus of proof to show, in any case, that any information or any document falling within these classes is not confidential or is not official will rest upon the member of the Service concerned.

Comment:—

In the case of information or documents not falling within the classes specified in paragraph 7 of this Regulation, the question whether they are official and confidential is left by these Regulations to be decided according to the circumstances of each case, without any rule placing the onus of proof on the officer concerned to show that they should not be held to be official or confidential.

7.—(a) The classes of documents referred to in paragraph 6 above comprise all documents or correspondence (and copies thereof) relating to any matter of official concern to any branch of Her Majesty's Service and emanating from or addressed to—

- (i) any diplomatic mission or consulate of Her Majesty;
- (ii) any Department of any of Her Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom or the Dominions, or of the Governments of India or of any territory under British administration;

(iii) any Department of any foreign Government;

(iv) any foreign diplomatic mission or consulate;

(v) any person in the service of any of the diplomatic missions, consulates or Government Departments referred to in (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above.

(b) The classes of information referred to in paragraph 6 above comprise all information relating to any matter of official concern to any branch of Her Majesty's Service and obtained orally from, or from documents or observation at, any of the sources specified in (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of sub-paragraph (a) above.

Comment:—

(1) Documents and correspondence may be official and confidential under this paragraph, notwithstanding that they have been addressed or sent in a personal form or marked "personal" or "private." Indeed, the presumption is that they are official and confidential. It is in fact, a common practice to send most secret information or most confidential instructions in a letter so marked. Similarly, oral information may be official and confidential although it has been given casually and in a non-official manner.

(2) The enumeration in paragraph 7 is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive. Written or oral communications from non-official persons relating to matters of official concern may often be confidential official information and, if in writing, official documents. As indicated by the comment to paragraph 6, the difference between documents which are covered by the enumeration in paragraph 7 (a) and information covered by the enumeration in paragraph 7 (b), and documents or information not so covered, is that in the former case there is a strong prima facie presumption that the document or information is both official and confidential, and in the latter case there is no such presumption.

8. Members of the Foreign Service shall, on the outbreak of war or other emergency, destroy official documents which are in their possession or custody, in accordance with the instructions in force for such eventuality. Except in cases of emergency, they shall not destroy the originals or sole copies of official documents except under authority from the Foreign Office, unless it is clear that such documents do not possess, or no longer possess, any interest for the purpose of official record. They may, however, from time to time destroy surplus copies or documents of ephemeral interest, in accordance with standing instructions.

9.—(a) Members of the Foreign Service must not, without the permission of the Secretary of State, publish any book or article, take part in a television programme, or give any public lecture or broadcast which is based in whole or in part upon their experiences as members of the Service or upon information obtained by them as a member of the Service.

(b) The reproduction in extenso of unpublished official documents (and this includes memoranda prepared by officials in their official capacity and with access to official information) is not permitted.

(c) Members of the Service, in publishing any book or article, or in giving any public lecture or broadcast talk (whether such book, lecture or talk is or is not based upon their experiences as members of the Service, or upon information obtained by them as members of the Service), must not, without the permission of the Secretary of State, refer to or permit any reference to be made to the position they hold or have held as a member of the Service.

10. Former members of the Foreign Service, or of those services which are now incorporated in the Foreign Service, remain subject to the Official Secrets Acts as regards all official documents and as regards all confidential information obtained by them while members of the Service.

Comment:—

The provisions of the Official Secrets Acts should be borne in mind when giving any lecture or broadcast which is based upon information obtained in an official capacity, and, as is customary, manuscripts of memoirs or political books should be submitted to the Secretary of State for scrutiny before publication.

11. Whenever a member of the Service ceases to be a member, he shall inform the Secretary of State of all papers in his possession which come, or may reasonably be thought to come, under any of the provisions of this Regulation. The Secretary of State may then give directions as to the future custody and disposal of such papers. A failure by the member to comply with the provision of this paragraph, or with the directions of the Secretary of State under it, will be a matter of which the Secretary of State may take account in connexion with his recommendations to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as regards the award of a pension.

Comment:—

When a member of the Foreign Service dies, he cannot by his will bequeath to any other person, papers which are the property of Her Majesty's Government as official papers, nor can he give any right to his executors or legatees to read secret papers which he could not show to them in his lifetime. Members of the Service should make arrangements to secure that, on their death, all papers which might come under this Regulation are delivered to the Foreign Office for examination and decision as to their custody and disposal.

REGULATION No. 11

SOLICITATION OF OUTSIDE INFLUENCE IN SUPPORT OF PERSONAL CLAIMS AND COMPLAINTS

1. Furtherance of personal claims

Members of the Foreign Service must not attempt to solicit political or other outside influence to further their position in the Service or their personal claims in any matter affecting the Service.

2. Submission of complaints

A member of the Service who wishes to make a complaint on a personal matter affecting his position in the Service may make a direct approach to the Head of the appropriate administrative department or to a visiting Inspector. If he fails to obtain satisfaction he may raise the matter with his official superior* and ask that the complaint be referred to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration. Serious complaints may be submitted to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration who will if necessary refer them to the Permanent Under-Secretary of State and the Secretary of State.

Comment:—

A member of the Foreign Service may, like anyone else, write to his Member of Parliament, so long as it is about a general problem affecting others besides the writer himself and not connected with his official work or matters of which he has special knowledge in his official capacity; or, if it is a personal problem, so long as it is not one relative to his position in the Service. What he must not do is to attempt, by writing to a Member of Parliament or other outside person in authority, to obtain some personal advantage in regard to Service matters, e.g., to secure some desirable appointment for himself.

REGULATION No. 12

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

1.—(1) This Regulation applies to all cases where a member of the Service is accused of a disciplinary offence. It does not apply to cases where an officer is merely admonished.

* See definitions in Regulation No. 12.

(ii) In this Regulation the expression "disciplinary offence" means conduct by a member of the Service prejudicial to the interests of the Service, or disobedience of official instructions.

Comment to paragraph 1:—

Under the Under-Secretary of State for Administration, the Head of Personnel Department is responsible for disciplinary questions in Branches A, B, C and D and the Director of Communications for disciplinary questions in Branch T.

It is not possible or desirable to attempt to lay down rules which determine in all circumstances what conduct constitutes a disciplinary offence nor the penalty that would be appropriate. Some offences are of such a nature, or are committed in such circumstances, that a warning or reprimand would be an appropriate penalty; other offences are of such a nature, or are committed in such circumstances, that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or seniority would be an appropriate penalty. There are certain courses of conduct which are reprehensible if the member holds a high post, but less serious when the member is of junior status. There are also courses of conduct which would merit merely an admonition and these may appropriately be dealt with by the Head of the Post at which the officer is serving or by the Head of Personnel Department or by the Director of Communications direct.

(iii) In this Regulation "Promotions Board" means either the whole Board or a Committee of the Board selected by the Permanent Under-Secretary of State in the case of members of Branch A, and by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration in the case of members of Branch B.

(iv) Any reference in this Regulation to a person holding any office includes a person who is, with the authority of the Secretary of State, temporarily acting for the holder of that office.

2. In this Regulation the expression "official superior" means in the case of—

- (i) a member of the staff of a Diplomatic Mission Abroad: the Head of that Mission or a Foreign Service Inspector or, in the case of the Head of the Mission or an officer in charge of a Mission, a Foreign Service Inspector or a person charged by the Secretary of State to investigate the matter;
- (ii) a member of the staff of a Consulate: the senior Consular Officer of the district or a Foreign Service Inspector, or, in the case of the Senior Consular Officer of the district, the Head of the Diplomatic Mission of the country in which the Consulate (if any) is situated or a Foreign Service Inspector;
- (iii) a person (other than a member of Grade 5 or above of Branch A) working in the Foreign Office, or on leave or on duty in the United Kingdom away from his normal post: the Head of the Department in which the person is working, or where the person concerned is himself the Head of a Department, the Superintending Under-Secretary of State for that Department; or, where the person concerned is not working in any particular Department or where the cause of the complaint arose from his conduct outside the course of his work in his Department, the head of the functional or administrative Department within whose province the cause of the complaint lies;

(iv) a person working in the Foreign Office or on leave or on duty in the United Kingdom away from his normal post who is a member of Grade 5 or above of Branch A: the Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

3. The Secretary of State, or the Under-Secretary of State for Administration acting on behalf of the Secretary of State, may suspend a member of the Foreign Service from duty if the question whether he has been guilty of a disciplinary offence is raised and the Secretary of State, or the Under-Secretary of State for Administration acting on behalf of the Secretary of State, considers that his suspension is desirable until a decision has been reached. Where an officer is suspended his remuneration in respect of any period of suspension may, if the Secretary of State shall so decide, be withheld wholly or in part. In the event of his reinstatement, it may, however, be resumed wholly or in part should the Secretary of State so determine.

4.—(a) Complaints of disciplinary offences by a member of the Service shall be made by the official superior in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration setting out the full facts of the case. A copy of this letter shall be communicated to the person complained of either by the official superior or, if he has not done so, by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration, and at the same time the person complained of shall be reminded of the procedure described in this Regulation.

(b) If a complaint received by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration is of such a nature that further investigation is required before it can be decided that there is prima facie evidence that a disciplinary offence has been committed by any particular person, the Under-Secretary of State for Administration may convene a Committee of Enquiry, the membership of which he shall determine, to carry out an investigation into the matters concerning which a complaint has been made. If the Committee of Enquiry find that there is prima facie evidence that a disciplinary offence has been committed by some particular person, the Committee of Enquiry shall so report, and their report shall, for the purposes of this Regulation, replace the letter from the official superior.

Comment to paragraph 4:—

Where the official superior is the Under-Secretary of State for Administration, then the correspondence shall be addressed to the Permanent Under-Secretary of State who will act in place of the Under-Secretary of State for Administration in all subsequent proceedings under this Regulation.

5. The member of the Service complained of may present his defence to the complaint against him in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration. The latter may at his discretion refer this letter or any part of it or any points arising from it to the official superior for his comments; both the Under-Secretary of State for Administration's letter and the official superior's reply will in that case be communicated to the person complained of in order that he may have an opportunity of making any further reply which he may think necessary.

6. It is not desirable that the official superior should address any other communications about the case to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration or to any other person, but, should he do so, they will be treated in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Regulation.

7.—(a) The Under-Secretary of State for Administration, on receipt of the letter of complaint from the official superior, may, in any case in which—

(i) the facts are admitted by the person complained of; or

(ii) the person complained of requests that his alleged offence shall be dealt with summarily;

decide that the offence alleged is one for which a warning or a reprimand is an adequate penalty. He may, in such cases, impose this penalty which shall be communicated by him or by the official superior to the person concerned. In the case of an officer of Branch T the penalty may be communicated to the person concerned by the Director of Communications or by the official superior.

(b) If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him, and has not asked for his alleged offence to be dealt with summarily, or if the Under-Secretary of State for Administration considers that the offence is one for which a warning or a reprimand may not be an adequate penalty, the case shall be referred, in the case of members of Branches A and B, to a Committee of the Promotions Board which shall be held under the Chairmanship of the Under-Secretary of State for Administration in the case of members of Branch A, and under the Chairmanship of the Head of Personnel Department in the case of members of Branch B. In cases concerning members of Branches C and D the case shall be referred to a Committee called by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration consisting of representatives of Personnel Department and of Establishment and Organisation Department and, where appropriate, of any other functional or administrative Department. Cases concerning members of Branch T shall be referred to a Committee called by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration consisting of representatives of the Diplomatic Wireless Service, of Personnel Department and of Establishment and Organisation Department and, where appropriate, of any other functional or administrative Department. A Legal Adviser of the Foreign Office shall also sit as a member of any Committee mentioned in this sub-paragraph; such a Committee is hereinafter referred to as a "Disciplinary Board."

Comment to paragraph 7 (b).—

The presence of a Foreign Office legal adviser at a Disciplinary Board is designed to assist the Committee's proceedings by ensuring—

(a) that the Board, which sits as an investigatory body, is properly advised as to the exercise of its functions in that capacity;

(b) that where there is a conflict of evidence, there is someone present who is trained to assess the value of evidence and the weight to be attached to any particular kind of evidence;

(c) that where questions as to the interpretation of regulations or of other written documents may be involved, there is someone present who is qualified by training and experience, to give an opinion upon such questions.

8. In all cases which are to be referred to a Disciplinary Board the person complained of will be asked by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration in writing whether he wishes to appear in person before the Board. He will at the same time be told that, subject to the consent of the Board, he may bring any witnesses whom he may desire and, in presenting his case orally, may have the assistance of a friend or colleague (who may be an Association representative) present with him. Where the person complained of has stated that he does not wish to appear before a Board, the Board may nevertheless summon him to appear if, for any reason, the Board considers his presence to be necessary. If the Board itself wishes to summon any witnesses, the person complained of will be informed, and shall have the right to be present when witnesses are giving evidence. All the letters referred to in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of this Regulation shall be laid before the Board.

9. When the Disciplinary Board has completed its consideration of the case, it shall furnish the Secretary of State in writing with its opinion of the facts (if these are in dispute) and as to what (if any) offence is proved, and with its advice upon the penalty. In advising upon the penalty, the Board shall consider whether any offence which it has found to be proved is of so serious a character that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or a loss of seniority would be an appropriate penalty, or whether the offence is one which would be adequately dealt with by a warning or a reprimand.

10.—(a) The decision as to the penalty is vested in the Secretary of State after he has considered the report and advice of the Disciplinary Board.

(b) The decision of the Secretary of State shall be communicated to the person concerned by the Under-Secretary of State for Administration, by the Head of Personnel Department or by the Director of Communications as appropriate.

REGULATION No. 13

TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

In regard to all appointments whatever in the Foreign Service, the Secretary of State will be free to make any such selection as, on his own responsibility, he may deem right without being bound by claims founded on seniority or on membership of the service.

Comment:—

(i) The Secretary of State is not bound by the recommendations referred to in paragraph 3 below.

(ii) In accordance with Article 5 (3) of the Foreign Service Order in Council, 1943, the secondment or appointment of Foreign Service Officers to posts outside the Foreign Service will not be excluded when it can be shown to be useful to the public service.

2. All members of the Service, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Comment:—

When appointments and transfers are made, account will be taken, so far as possible, of the circumstances and wishes of the individual; members of the Service will, however, be expected to regard an intimation that they are to be transferred to a certain post as an order and not as a request.

3. Recommendations for transfers and promotions in or to Grade 6 or above in Branch A will be made to the Secretary of State by the Branch A Promotions Board; for transfers and promotions in or to Grades 7, 8 and 9 of Branch A to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration by the Head of Personnel Department; for promotions to Grades 1, 1A, 2, 3 and 4 and for transfers within Grades 1, 1A, 2 and 3 in Branch B to the Under-Secretary of State for Administration by the Branch B Senior Promotions Board; for promotions within Grades 5 and 6 of Branch B and within Branches C and D to the Head of Personnel Department by the Branch B Junior Promotions

Board and for promotions and transfers within Branch T to the Director of Communications by the Branch T Promotions Board.

The senior and junior Branch B Promotions Boards will be convened by the Head of Personnel Department as and when he considers it desirable. RETIREMENT

1. Retirement at the wish of the Department will take place at any time after the officer reaches the age at which he will be eligible to receive a pension. He will not necessarily be required to retire on reaching this age.

2. The decision to retain an officer beyond his minimum retiring age will be based on the following considerations:—

- (a) Efficiency.
- (b) Physical fitness.
- (c) Necessity for promotion of junior officers at a suitable age.
- (d) Any change in the requirements of the Service after contraction or reorganisation.

Comment:—

The decision to retain an officer will be taken on the recommendation of the appropriate Promotions Board.

3. An officer may retire at his own wish when he has reached the age at which he is eligible for pension or at any time thereafter.

4. An officer of a grade not lower than that of Second Secretary (Grade A.8 or R.4) may be required to retire under the special procedure laid down in Section 2 of the Foreign Service Act, 1943, or, having attained the age of 50 years, may retire voluntarily under the special procedure and on the conditions laid down in Section 34 of the Superannuation Act, 1949.

2. Any officer who is called upon to assume the full duties of a post higher than his own, other than as Chargé d'Affaires, either at his own or at another station, may, after a continuous period of 49 days, be granted an allowance for performing such duties. Where the higher post is vacant, that is, where the salary of the post is not being paid to any other person, the allowance may be paid immediately the officer assumes the higher duties.

Comment:—

It does not follow that an officer assuming higher duties will always receive an allowance, the payment of which will depend on his effective assumption of the full duties of the post.

3. If a Head of Mission being under the age of 60, is recalled from his post on a rupture of diplomatic relations, or in other special circumstances and if he is not appointed to another post, he may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State and provided that it is the intention to re-employ him in his existing grade or in a higher grade, continue to receive the full salary attaching to the post which he has just vacated for a period not exceeding twelve months, after which the position will be reviewed. During this period of twelve months he will be required to perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State. If during this period he declines to proceed to any vacant post in which the Secretary of State is prepared to employ him, he will immediately be placed en disponibilité without salary or pension rights while still unemployed.

REGULATION No. 17

- (iii) If an officer who is authorised to buy a new uniform prefers to have an old one altered he may receive the cost of alterations within the cost of a new uniform. Provided that a change of class is involved this need not prejudice his claim to a new uniform at a later date.
- (d) The actual reasonable cost of any necessary alterations will be allowed to an officer in Branch A or Branch B who is required to elevate the class of his uniform, subject to production of a certificate that the amount has been paid for the purpose claimed.

Comment:—

- (i) Where an officer prefers to buy a new uniform instead of having his present one altered he may receive the cost which would have been incurred if he had had the necessary alteration made to his existing uniform.

REGULATION No. 18*FOREIGN ALLOWANCES

1. A foreign allowance or, in the case of Heads of Diplomatic Missions, frais de representation, will be assigned to members of the Foreign Service serving abroad, which will be determined by the Secretary of State in the light of conditions at the particular post and which will be varied from time to time in accordance with movements in local cost of living, rates of exchange and recommendations of the Foreign Service Inspectors.

Comment:—

- (i) Salary is intended to cover necessary expenditure in the United Kingdom and to take the first strain of the cost of living of the officer abroad, foreign allowances supplementing it to the extent to which the salary falls short of total necessary expenditure. In assessing foreign allowance, the following items, inter alia, are taken into account:—
  - (a) local cost of living.
  - (b) expenditure which an officer serving abroad necessarily incurs, either at home or abroad, over and above that of an officer of corresponding grade serving in the Foreign Office; and
  - (c) representational expenditure, where appropriate, i.e., expenditure which, while optional for a private individual, is obligatory for a member of the Foreign Service resident abroad by virtue of his official position. In certain grades part of this item must be accounted for.
  - (d) The officer's marital status and children.
- (ii) When an officer is in receipt of a foreign allowance which includes provision for children, that provision is computed as follows:—

For children who are under the age of 18 and not gainfully employed:—

(a) who accompany the officer and live with him at the Post:—

Branch A.—For the first child: 8 per cent. of the total of the mean gross salary and basic foreign allowance of a married Grade 7 officer at the Post. For the second and subsequent children: 3 per cent. of the same total.

Branches B and T.—For the first child: 8 per cent. of the total of the mean gross salary and basic foreign allowance of a married B4 officer at the Post. For the second and subsequent children: 3 per cent. of the same total.

Branch D.—Seventy-five per cent. of the figure for Branches B and T.

(b) who are at boarding school in the United Kingdom:—

Branches A, B, D, and T.—£175 a year for the first child, £300 a year for the second child, £400 a year for the third and subsequent children.

(c) who are not at the officer's post and not at boarding school in the United Kingdom:—

Branches A, B, D and T.—£50 a year for each child, to be increased to £100 and £150 respectively for second and subsequent children, provided that they are in the United Kingdom.

(iii) Foreign allowance is not subject to United Kingdom income tax.

3. When an officer who is to return to his station on duty after his absence is:—(i) Absent on duty:—(a) in the United Kingdom:—

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post, less 12½ per cent., and draw subsistence allowance at the rates in force for the United Kingdom. The necessity for the payment of subsistence allowance will be reviewed after two months' absence.

Comment:—

In the case of a married officer who takes his wife and family (if any) with him, he will draw subsistence allowance for himself only. The officer will be responsible for the travelling expenses of his wife and family.

(b) Temporarily attached to another station:—

He will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is the higher, and draw subsistence allowance at the discretion of the Secretary of State. Where approval is given for his wife to accompany him officially, he may also draw subsistence allowance for his wife at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) In circumstances other than (a) and (b):—

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post, less 12½ per cent., and draw subsistence allowance. When an officer is married and approval is given for his wife to accompany him officially, he may draw subsistence allowance for his wife.

(II) Absent on Earned Leave:—

He will draw no subsistence allowance, but will retain the foreign allowance of his post, less 12½ per cent., except as excluded under paragraph 2, above.

(III) Absent on Sick Leave outside the country where he is posted:—

If an officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him or if he is unmarried he will retain the foreign allowance of his post less one-third, for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will exercise full discretion with regard to the further payment of foreign allowance.

If the officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at his station his case will be dealt with on its merits.

4. The reduction under paragraphs 3 (i) (a) and 3 (i) (c) above will not be applied in respect of brief absences on duty within a total of 14 days in one calendar year nor will the reductions under paragraph 3 (ii) be applied in respect of brief absences on leave within a total of 14 days in one calendar year but any absence whether on leave, duty or both combined which exceeds 14 days will entail a reduction over the whole period.

The reductions under paragraph 3 (i) (c) will not be applied to a Head of Mission who is absent from his station but on duty within the country in which he resides nor will it be applied to a head of a consular post who is away from his station but on duty within his consular district.

(III) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom:—

No allowance will be payable.

7. An officer, married or unmarried, who is on Sick Leave in the country where he is posted will retain his foreign allowance, less 12½ per cent., for an aggregate of two months in any period of twelve months. Thereafter he will receive two-thirds of the full allowance for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances.

An officer who is called upon to assume the full duties of a higher post at his own station may receive an allowance equivalent to 12½ per cent. of the foreign allowance of an officer of his own marital status of the grade of the higher post, always provided that the officer's own foreign allowance together with the acting allowance shall not exceed the foreign allowance of the grade for which he is acting.

9. The additional foreign allowance referred to in paragraph 8 above will not be payable to any officer substituting for an officer absent on duty or leave and in receipt of his full foreign allowance under paragraph 4 above.

10. Subject to a deduction of 12½ per cent., to be granted to the Chargé d'Affaires as provided in paragraph 11 of this Regulation, the Head of a Diplomatic Mission will continue to receive his frais de représentation in full during absences on authorised leave or on duty outside the country in which he resides on the condition that he continues to defray the expenses of the upkeep of the Mission during his absence. On the expiry of his authorised leave, if he is still absent from his post, the extent of any further deduction will be determined by the Secretary of State.

11. When an officer acts as Chargé d'Affaires at a Diplomatic Mission during the absence of the Head of Mission, he will draw, in addition to his own foreign allowance, an allowance equivalent to 12½ per cent. of the frais de représentation of the absent Head of Mission to enable him to meet the additional cost of entertainment.

The above rates for officers serving in the United Kingdom apply to officers who become members of the Foreign Service on or after 1st July, 1956. Officers employed as at 30th June, 1956, may, where and so long as it is favourable to them, retain the leave allowance of their grade at that date, adjusted as necessary for a five-day week and subject to a maximum of 30 days when working in the United Kingdom.

Comment:—

It is impossible to define local leave to cover conditions at every post, but generally speaking it is leave for which travelling expenses are not paid direct from public funds.

2. Officers who are stationed at certain posts or in certain countries which shall from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury as unhealthy for purposes of leave of absence (see Annex II), and who, at the expiration of that leave return to the same post or any other of the specified posts, are eligible for additional ordinary leave at the rate of 14 days a year, with a maximum of 28 days.

3. In calculating, for the purposes of paragraphs 1 (a) and 2 above and 6 to 8 below the number of days of ordinary leave to which an officer is eligible at any time—

- (a) Sundays occurring during a period when leave is being taken are counted;
- (b) the remainder of the calendar year in which leave is taken may, if the officer so desires, be included in the computation;
- (c) if an officer falls sick while on ordinary leave or during travelling time under paragraph 10 below and furnishes a medical certificate to that effect, the period of sickness will be regarded as sick leave.

4. Permission to take ordinary leave is granted subject to the exigencies of the Service.

5.—(a) Officers can take the ordinary leave for which they are eligible under this regulation only with the permission—

- (i) in the case of officers serving at a post abroad, of the Secretary of State and, where appropriate, of the Head of the Post or of the Superintending Post or in the case of Superintending Consular Officers, of the Head of the Mission;
  - (ii) in the case of an Assistant Under-Secretary of State or of the Head of a Department in the Foreign Office of the Permanent Under-Secretary or of the Superintending Under-Secretary of State as the case may be;
  - (iii) in the case of other officers serving in the United Kingdom, of the Head of the Department or Section in which they are serving.
- (b) Applications for leave from Heads of Posts should state the name of the officer to be left in charge.

(c) Brief absences on local leave may be authorised by the Head of Post without reference to the Foreign Office. Such absences must, however, be reported in Life Certificates.

6. Subject to the limitations of paragraph 9 below, ordinary leave may be taken—

- (a) in the country where the officer is serving or in another country;
- (b) in one period during the calendar year covering all the leave for which the officer is eligible in that year;
- (c) in more than one period during the calendar year;
- (d) by accumulating in accordance with paragraph 8 below.

Comment:—

Officers passing through the United Kingdom on transfer will normally be required to take at that time any leave for which they are then eligible.

7. Where an officer has spent sick leave in the United Kingdom, he should take any ordinary leave for which he is eligible at the time his sick leave terminates before he returns to his post abroad, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise.

8. The following rules apply to accumulated leave:—

(a) Branch A

Officers abroad may accumulate the ordinary leave to which they are entitled under paragraph 1 above, up to, but not exceeding the total ordinary leave to which they are entitled for three years.

(b) Branches B, C, D and T

Officers abroad may accumulate the ordinary leave to which they are entitled under paragraph 1 above, up to, but not exceeding the total ordinary leave to which they are entitled for 3½ years.

- (c) The amounts in paragraphs (a) and (b) above may be increased by up to 28 days in the case of officers serving at posts or in countries referred to in paragraph 2 above.
- (d) An officer abroad who has accumulated ordinary leave must, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise, on the next occasion when he is granted travelling time and travelling expenses for the purpose of proceeding on leave, take all the accumulated leave to which he is entitled.
- (e) Local leave may not be accumulated and any local leave not taken in the calendar year in which it is earned, will be forfeited.

9. No leave may be accumulated in respect of service in the United Kingdom save in exceptional circumstances and with the express permission of the Secretary of State.

10. Travelling time (i.e., the time actually occupied by the outward and return journey by an approved route between the country where the officer is serving and the country where he is taking leave) is allowed on one occasion during each calendar year with the proviso that travelling time thus allowed shall not exceed the time occupied by a journey to and from the United Kingdom by an approved route.

Comment:—

For the conditions on which travelling allowances are granted see Regulation No. 21.

11. The provisions of paragraphs 2, 6 to 8 and 10 apply only to officers serving abroad.

II.—Sick Leave

12. Unless otherwise stated, the following paragraphs of this Regulation apply to members of the Service whether they are serving in the United Kingdom or abroad.

13. The grant of sick leave is subject in all cases to the Secretary of State being satisfied that the officer to whom it is granted has a reasonable prospect of recovery so as to enable him to return to his duties.

14. The grant of sick leave to any officer for a period exceeding four days is conditional on the production by the officer of a certificate signed by a duly qualified medical practitioner indicating the nature of the illness and the period estimated to be required for recovery. If the number of days during which any officer is absent on sick leave in any period of twelve months without such certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary leave allowable.

15. The permissions required for the grant of sick leave are the same as those described for ordinary leave in paragraph 5 of this regulation. In the case of officers serving abroad, permission need not be sought from the Foreign Office for any period of sick leave not exceeding 14 days, but such absences must be reported on Life certificates.

16. The Secretary of State may require further medical certificates or periodical medical certificates reporting progress where he considers it desirable.

17. Subject to the provision of a medical certificate showing that the officer is likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period, sick leave on full pay may be granted for a period or periods not exceeding six months in the aggregate during any period of twelve months. An officer who has had sick leave on full pay for the maximum period may be granted sick leave on half pay, subject always to a maximum of twelve months' sick leave (whether on whole or half pay and whether on the basis of a medical certificate or not) in any period of four years.

18. Where an officer has been granted the maximum amount of sick leave which can be granted on full or half pay, the grant of further sick leave will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State of a reliable medical certificate showing that the officer is considered likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period. If further sick leave is granted, the officer may be paid a salary at the rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which he would have qualified if he had retired for reasons of health at the time when his period of sick leave expired (hereafter referred to as pension rate of pay); or on half pay if this would be less than pension rate of pay. If the officer is unable to furnish a medical certificate as described above, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, call on him to retire on grounds of ill-health.

Comment:—

- (1) Periods of sick leave in excess of twelve months during any period of four years will be excluded from service on which annual increments of salary or pension on retirement are calculated.
- (2) See paragraph 7 of this regulation as to the taking of accrued ordinary leave at the end of sick leave in the case of an officer serving abroad.
- (3) See paragraph 3 (c) of this regulation as regards officers falling sick during their ordinary leave.

19. Any officer who is absent from duty as a result of an accident in the United Kingdom shall not be allowed paid sick leave if a claim for damages in respect of the accident lies against a third party, other than a servant of the Crown acting during the course of his duty, or except where a breach of duty on the part of the Crown has caused the accident, but sums amounting to not more than the sums which would have been paid had the absence been due to ordinary sickness shall be advanced to such an officer. He will be required to undertake to refund, from any damages received, the full amount of the sums so advanced less such part of that amount as is proportionate to any contributory negligence or fault on his part, or, if the claim is settled by a lump sum in which no specific amount is identifiable as loss of earnings, to refund the advance to the same extent as the total claim is successful, or such other amount as is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, fair and reasonable.

20. Any period of absence in such a case shall, if a refund of the sums advanced is made in full, be ignored for the purpose of reckoning sick leave, or, if a refund is made in part only and covering, therefore, part only of the period of absence, there shall be reckoned as sick leave only that part of the total period of absence for which no refund is made.

21. When an officer, on or off duty, is injured as a result of an accident in the United Kingdom in which the Crown is involved, sick leave will be excused from reckoning against sick leave entitlement as follows:—

(i) Cases in which the Crown alone is involved.

- (a) Where the Crown admits, or a court finds, that there was no contributory negligence on the part of the injured officer, the total period of paid sick leave will be excused.
- (b) Where the injured officer admits, or a court finds, contributory negligence on his part and the percentage of damages which he cannot recover has accordingly been fixed, paid sick leave will be excused in proportion to the extent to which there is no contributory negligence on his part.
- (c) Where the claim is settled by a lump sum without admission of negligence or, if there is an admission of negligence by the Crown, without agreement as to whether or not there is any contributory negligence on the part of the injured officer, such part of the period of paid sick leave will be excused as is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, fair and reasonable.

(ii) Cases in which both the Crown and a Third Party are involved.

Where an officer is injured as a result of an accident in which both the Crown and a third party are involved, and a claim lies against a third party, sums of money will be advanced in accordance with paragraph 19 of this Regulation. In such cases, where claims for damages are made against both the Crown and the third party, sick leave will be excused in accordance with paragraph 20 of this Regulation in respect of the officer's claim against a third party. Any remaining period of sick leave will be treated on the basis of clause (i) a, b and c above.

Comment:—

For the purposes of paragraphs 19 to 21 of this Regulation, accident includes any event which causes personal injury, and paid sick leave includes leave at pension rate of pay.

III.—Leave (General)

22. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department, in advance if possible, of the date on which he intends to proceed on leave, and of the address to which he is going. Every subsequent change of address must be reported to that Department.

Every officer serving at home must keep the Personnel Department informed of the address or addresses to which he is going while on leave. If any part of his leave is to be spent outside the United Kingdom he should so inform the Personnel Department and give an address at which he can be contacted. Members of Branch T should notify the Personnel Officer of the Diplomatic Wireless Service in the circumstances described in this paragraph.

23. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department in advance of the date on which he intends to leave the United Kingdom in order to return to his post from leave except that a member of Branch T should so inform the Personnel Officer of the Diplomatic Wireless Service.

24. The actual dates of every officer's departure from his post abroad on leave and of his return must be officially reported to the Foreign Office by telegram in the case of Heads of posts and by despatch in other cases.

Comment:—

When circumstances permit, officers serving abroad will be expected to spend their ordinary leave in the United Kingdom in order that they may keep in touch with developments in this country. They will be expected to undertake such tours or refresher courses and to pay such visits to departments of the Foreign Office and to other Government Departments as may be required of them. Time spent on officially arranged tours and refresher courses will not reckon against leave entitlement and during such tours and refresher courses subsistence allowance at the authorised rates will normally be payable. Time spent on routine visits to the Foreign Office or to other Government Departments is reckoned against leave entitlement unless the time so spent is exceptionally long; and no subsistence allowance is payable.

25. Every officer serving in the United Kingdom must, whenever absent from the Foreign Office for whatever reason, leave his address with his superior officer or must follow such other procedure in this connection as may be indicated in the departmental instructions in force at the time.

REGULATION No. 21

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

1. Whenever an officer makes a journey on public service, the amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, for the journey in question by the approved route will be payable to him.

Comment:—

The "approved route" means the route approved for the particular journey in question. In many cases there is a standard route for journeys between different countries which will be the "approved route." An officer who makes the journey by a route other than the approved route (e.g., travels by air or in his own car when the approved route is by rail, &c.) will not be able to claim more than the amount payable for a journey by the approved route. On the other hand, if the route which he takes is cheaper than the approved route he will not be able to claim more than the actual expenses incurred.

2. Journeys on the public service include:—

(a) Any journey made by an officer serving at home or abroad for the purpose of attending an international conference or discussion or consultation, or of making a tour or visit, which the officer makes with the authority of the Secretary of State.

Comment:—

The Secretary of State may delegate to the Head of a Diplomatic Mission authority to sanction journeys by members of the Service in the territories within his jurisdiction.

b) Any journey from the United Kingdom made by an officer to his post abroad on his appointment to such post.

(c) Any journey to his new post made by an officer on transfer from the place where the officer was previously serving or, if he was on leave at the time of transfer, from the place where he was spending his leave. If, however, the journey from the place where he was spending his leave is more expensive than the journey from his previous post, the officer cannot claim more than the amount payable in respect of a journey from the United Kingdom or from his previous post as the Secretary of State may decide.

(d) Where the journey in the cases referred to in (b) and (c) above is made by an officer who is being moved at his own request before the completion of three years' service at his post or by an officer who is being moved on account of misconduct, the officer is not entitled to be repaid the cost of his, or his family's or servants' travelling expenses.

3. The amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, by an approved route, will be payable to an officer serving abroad:—

(a) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during ordinary leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 4 below.

(b) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during sick leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 5 below.

(c) If he is retiring on pension and is proceeding from his post to his place of retirement. If the journey to the place of his retirement is a more expensive journey than a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not be entitled to claim more than would be payable in respect of the journey to the United Kingdom.

Comment:—

An officer who retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct) may not claim any travelling allowances on retirement.

4. The amount of the fares in the cases referred to in paragraph 3 (a) above (ordinary leave) will be payable as follows:—

(a) To an officer in Grade 8 or above in Branch A, or in Grade 3 or above in Branch B, or to an officer who has five years' service or more in Grade 4 of Branch B

after 24 months' consecutive service abroad

(b) To all other officers

after 30 months' consecutive service abroad;

except that in the case of officers serving at certain posts which are regarded as unhealthy for purposes of leave the amount of the fares will be payable after 18 months' consecutive service. Where leave is taken in a country other than the United Kingdom, the amounts payable in respect of fares will not usually be paid from public funds and will only be allowed if the Secretary of State decides that payment from public funds is warranted by special circumstances and, in any case, will not exceed those which would be payable in respect of a journey to or from the United Kingdom by an approved route. If, however, the amount of the fares to or from the place at which leave is being taken is less than the amount of the fares for a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will only receive the amount of the fares for the journey actually taken.

5. In the cases referred to in paragraph 3 (b) above (sick leave), the Secretary of State may, at his discretion, subject to the production of a medical certificate, allow the payment to the officer of the amount of the fares from his post to such place as the officer may proceed under medical advice on health grounds or for the purposes of undergoing treatment which is not available locally.

6.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 2 or in (a) or (c) of paragraph 3 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for members of his family, as defined in paragraph (b) below. In the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 2 and (b) of paragraph 3 he will only be entitled to receive the amounts of the fares for any members of his family if the Secretary of State in any particular case so decides.

Comment:—

- (i) Families will be expected to travel together. Where the officer's family do not travel with him their expenses will not be paid unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that there was a good reason for separate journeys. Family travelling expenses will be payable only where the family reside continuously with the officer at his post and not in respect of short-term visits to the post other than those specifically authorised in paragraph 7 below.
- (ii) Travelling expenses will be allowed for an officer's wife in cases under (a) of paragraph 2 only where the journey is a local duty journey and is of a strictly representational or ceremonial nature and where the Secretary of State has been satisfied in advance that it was necessary or desirable for her to accompany the officer.
- (iii) Travelling expenses may be allowed for the wife of a Head of Mission who accompanies her husband on recall to the United Kingdom, if the Secretary of State so decides.
- (b) The members of an officer's family referred to in (a) above are:—

- (1) his wife. In the case of officers of Branch A and Branch B, if the officer is not living in an hotel and is unmarried or a widower without children and occupies a post abroad with representational duties, or of a widower who has his children with him, the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to an officer of the fare of a sister or other relative;
- (2) sons who at the time of the beginning of the journey are under 16 years of age, or who, though 16 years of age or over, reside with and are dependent on their father by reason of physical or mental infirmity;

- (3) unmarried daughters residing with and dependent on their father;
- (4) sons up to the age of 18 years who are resident at their father's post abroad and are receiving full-time education at that post.

Comment:—

Adopted or stepchildren are included in the above enumeration.

(c) The amount of the fares of the members of the family of an officer serving abroad who dies, leaving his family abroad, for a journey from the place where they are to the place to which they desire to go, will be paid at the request of his widow or other member of his family up to the amount of the fares from the officer's post to the United Kingdom.

(d) If a member of the family of an officer serving abroad who is resident with the officer at his post is seriously ill and is required to proceed elsewhere on health grounds or for the purposes of treatment, the Secretary of State may, at his discretion, subject to the production of a medical certificate, allow payment to the officer of the return fares of the sick person and (where necessary) another person travelling with a sick person from the officer's post to such place as the sick person may proceed on medical advice.

7. An officer of Branch A, B, D, or T serving overseas and accompanied by his wife may claim the cost of one return passage by the approved route in respect of each child resident in the United Kingdom who visits him at the post, or for his wife who visits the child or children in the United Kingdom, once during each period of 12 months' continuous service abroad provided that the child is under the age of eighteen and not gainfully employed. An expectation of nine months' service or more at the end of completed periods of 12 months gives entitlement to a further visit.

Comment:—

Where the child is of a previous marriage of the officer or his wife, payment of the fares will be considered on the merits of the case.

8.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 2 or (a) or (c) of paragraph 3 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for servants (within the limits specified in paragraph (b) below). The Secretary of State may in special circumstances authorise the payment of the fares of a servant accompanying the officer in the cases referred to in (b) of paragraph 3 (provided no member of the family is also accompanying the officer) and (a) of paragraph 2 above.

(b) The maximum number of servants in respect of whom the amounts of fares may be paid are:—

(i) Branch A

Heads of Missions: 5;

Married officers in Grades 4, 5 and 6 (other than Heads of Missions): 3;

Married officers in Grades 7, 8 and 9 and unmarried officers in Grades 4, 5 and 6: 2;

Other officers: 1;

except that in the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 3 (ordinary leave) the maximum number of servants is—

Heads of Missions: 3;

Married officers in Grades 4 to 6 (other than Heads of Missions): 2;

Other officers: 1.

(II) Branch B

Married officers in Grade 4 and above: 2;

Unmarried officers of Grade 4 and above: 1;
except that in the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 3 (ordinary leave) the maximum number of servants for the above Branch B officers is one.

(III) Branch C, Branch D and Branch T

No expenditure for servants will be payable.

Comment:—

Comment (1) to paragraph 6 (a) above also applies to the case of servants.

(c) Where an officer serving abroad dies, leaving at his post servants whom he had brought from the United Kingdom or elsewhere to his post and for whose return to their homes he had made himself responsible, the amount of the fares for such servants (within the limits of (b) above) for a journey from his post to their home will be paid on request up to the amount of the fares to the United Kingdom.

9. When the fares are payable under the previous paragraphs of this regulation these will be:—

(a) Officers of Branch A and Grade 4 and above in Branch B:—

(1) Officers and members of his family: First class fares (including sleeping berths for a land journey).

(II) Servants: Second class fares.

Where, however, the servant is a nurse or governess travelling with the officer's child or children of 10 years of age or under, a first class fare may be claimed. This does not apply, however, to a journey or part of a journey by land where

(a) there is only one such child; or

(b) First class sleeping accommodation is available on payment of a supplement to a second class fare (in which case this supplement will be payable).

First class fares, however, will be payable in respect of servants in cases where no second class accommodation is available or, in exceptional cases abroad, where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

(b) Officers in Grades 5 and 6 in Branch B, and members of their families, Branch C officers and officers in Branch D and T and members of their families:—

Second class fares whether by sea or land, including sleeping berths where necessary for land journeys, except for Grade 5 officers of Branch B and their families and officers in Grades 1, 2, 3 and E1 of Branch T and their families whose fares will be first class elsewhere than in the United Kingdom. First class fare will, however, be payable where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

Comment:—

In the interest of economy certain restrictions are temporarily in force in respect of class of travel by air and by sea on certain routes.

10.—(a) In any case where the amount of fares is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation, except in the case of journeys on ordinary and sick leave, a subsistence allowance will be granted to meet the expenses of food and sleeping accommodation where these are not included in the fare. The subsistence allowance (or a proportion thereof—see (b) below) will be at the rate in force at the time for the countries traversed by an approved route or for journeys by sea except when reduced as under (c) below.

(b) Officers will receive subsistence allowance at the authorised rate for their grade. The full authorised rate will be payable in respect of the officer, three-quarters of this rate in respect of an officer's wife, half of this rate in respect of each member of his family over the age of 12 months and three-eighths of this rate for each servant, subject to the limitations as to numbers laid down in paragraphs 6 (b) and 8 (b) of this regulation.

(c) Where some, but not all, of the items for which subsistence allowance is granted are provided in the fare, the subsistence allowance will be proportionately reduced.

Comment:—

(i) Where the expenses of a sleeping-berth on a long journey are paid, only two-thirds of the subsistence allowance, to meet the cost of food, will be granted.

(ii) Subsistence allowances are payable only where the expenses of the journey are met from public funds. If, however, no fare is payable (e.g., a journey on one of Her Majesty's ships) and the officer has to pay for his board or if the fare payable does not include board, then a modified subsistence allowance is payable.

11. Except in the case of journeys authorised under paragraph 7, above necessary and reasonable expenses (such as taxi fares, fees for registration of luggage, portage, &c.) incidental to the journey in respect of which the amount of the fare is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation will be payable to the officer on his application supported by a certificate.

12. Where an officer is proceeding to his post on transfer or on first appointment abroad or leaving his post on retirement on pension or on an appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer dies while serving abroad, the cost of transporting his personal effects by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to such limits as to volume, cost and nature as the Secretary of State may consider to be reasonable, except in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 2 (d) or when the officer retires in circumstances in which he is not granted a pension.

Comment:—

This paragraph applies to heavy luggage containing personal effects as opposed to ordinary travelling luggage, which is covered by paragraph 11 above, and furniture which is dealt with in paragraph 14 below. It includes such things as clothes, household linen, blankets, cutlery, crockery, books and small articles of decoration and will normally be restricted to one-third of the limits referred to in paragraph 14 below as to weight and size or 20 cwt., whichever is the greater. Whenever possible three competitive tenders should be obtained for packing and transport of personal effects exceeding a gross weight of 10 cwt. The cost of transport of drink and stores is not allowed in any circumstances. As regards the transport of motor cars, see paragraph 17.

13. When an officer proceeds on leave and transfers to another post abroad, he may be allowed storage charges on his personal effects at either his old post or his new post until he occupies furnished accommodation at the latter. If he leaves his old post prior to notification of his new post he may be allowed storage charges on his personal effects at his old post, at a port in the United Kingdom or at a port en route. An officer serving abroad may be allowed storage charges on his personal effects (as defined in paragraph 12) in the United Kingdom provided that the total amount of goods transported abroad and/or stored in the United Kingdom does not exceed the officer's regulation entitlement under paragraph 12 above.

14.—(a) Where an officer is appointed or transferred to a post and has been authorised by the Secretary of State to rent unfurnished accommodation, the cost of packing, unpacking and transporting the officer's own furniture by an approved route and method of transport to his post will be allowed, but only within the following limits:—

Branch A

- (i) In the case of officers of Grades 1 to 6 and married officers of lower grades, up to 10½ tons or 2,100 cubic feet or 60 cubic metres (equivalent to about three van loads).
- (ii) In the case of unmarried officers below Grade 6, up to 4 tons or 800 cubic feet or 23 cubic metres.

Branch B

- (i) In the case of married officers of Grade 4 and above up to 7 tons or 1,400 cubic feet or 40 cubic metres.
- (ii) In the case of unmarried officers of Grade 4 or above or married officers of Grade 5 and 6, up to 4 tons or 800 cubic feet or 23 cubic metres.
- (iii) In the case of unmarried officers of Grades 5 and 6, up to 2 tons or 400 cubic feet or 12 cubic metres.

Branch C

Branch C officers will not be authorised to transport furniture.

Branch D

- (i) In the case of married officers, up to 4 tons or 800 cubic feet or 23 cubic metres.
- (ii) In the case of unmarried officers, up to 1½ tons or 350 cubic feet or 10 cubic metres.

Branch T

- (i) In the case of married officers, up to 4 tons or 800 cubic feet or 23 cubic metres.
- (ii) In the case of unmarried officers, up to 2 tons or 400 cubic feet or 12 cubic metres.

Comment:—

- (i) In order to ensure that claims for the cost of transporting furniture and personal effects are as low as possible, officers should, whenever possible, obtain three competitive tenders for packing and transport.
- (ii) Where the cost of packing cases or lift vans is included in the charge for removal of furniture, these may be either retained for further use or sold and the proceeds credited to public funds. No storage charges for empty cases or vans can be allowed.

(b) Where an officer is allowed the cost of transporting his furniture under (a) above, but cannot immediately find suitable unfurnished accommodation at his new post, he will be allowed charges for storage abroad of his furniture up to the limits specified in (a) above, for a reasonable period.

Comment:—

This storage may be at his new post or his old post. The period allowed will not ordinarily exceed three months. Storage charges in the United Kingdom will not be accepted.

(c) Where an officer has been given a rent allowance for furnished accommodation or where his official residence, though furnished, has not been completely equipped, he will be allowed the cost of transporting by an approved route and method of transport any essential articles of furniture which are not included in the furniture provided.

(d) Where an officer is leaving his post on retirement on pension or on appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer serving abroad dies, the cost of transporting his furniture to the United Kingdom or place of retirement by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to the limits as to quantity specified in (a) above, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport to London. In the case of an officer on retirement the cost of transport to his place of retirement in the United Kingdom may be paid.

(e) Where the officer is being removed in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 2(d) and in the comment to paragraph 3 no allowances can be claimed under this paragraph.

15. Where an officer serving abroad is, at the time of his transfer to a new appointment, in possession of furniture at his old post and is not granted an allowance for transferring his furniture to his new post under paragraph 14 (a) above, the officer will, at his option, be allowed (unless the transfer is made in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 2 (d)) either the cost of removing the furniture to London up to the limits of the quantity of furniture specified in paragraph 14 (a), or the cost of storing the furniture up to these limits as to quantity, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport of the furniture to London.

Comment:—

If the officer is subsequently transferred to another post abroad in circumstances where he may be allowed the cost of removing his furniture to this post, he may then apply for the cost of removing his furniture under paragraph 14 (a) from London or the place abroad where he stored it, as the case may be. If he retires on pension or dies and his furniture has been stored abroad under paragraph 15, application may be made for the cost of removing his furniture to London under paragraph 14 (d).

16. Where an officer serving abroad insures personal and household effects in any part of the world against all risks of loss and damage (including breakage), by means of a comprehensive world-wide policy, one-third of the annual premium within certain limits, as laid down from time to time and subject to the following limits of value, may be paid from public funds:—

Comment :—

(1) Personal effects are deemed to include linen and blankets, but not kitchen equipment, cutlery or crockery, which are provided for in the second category.

(2) The cost of insuring furniture and effects during transit under any policy of a type other than that referred to above will not be allowed. No claim for compensation in respect of loss or damage to effects in transit will be considered if the risk could have been covered by a policy such as that referred to above.

17. Where an officer of Grade 9 of Branch A or Grade 4 of Branch B or above or Grade 1 of Branch T is appointed or transferred to a post abroad at which it is necessary for the proper execution of his duties that he should have his own private motor car the cost of transporting a British car from the United Kingdom or from his previous post by an approved route and method of transport may, in certain circumstances, be allowed.

Comment :—

The motor car need not be included within the limits as regards weight and cubic capacity specified in paragraph 14 above. The cost of transporting a car from the United Kingdom to a post abroad will not normally be paid if the car is more than three years old. Where an officer is transferred from one post abroad to another post abroad he is normally expected to sell his car and buy another for use at his new post. Exceptionally, where local sale is impossible, he may be paid the full cost of transport to his new post. Where the car is very new, he may be paid the cost to his new post within the cost of transporting it from the United Kingdom. The cost of transporting a car to the United Kingdom will not be allowed except in the case of an officer who dies at his post abroad or who returns to the United Kingdom to retire on pension.

18. The additional premium on a life insurance policy to cover risk of travel and service abroad may be refunded.

Payments under this paragraph will be limited to policies covering amounts not exceeding in total three times the officer's annual salary maximum, or £2,000 whichever is the higher.

REGULATION No 22

RENT ALLOWANCES

1. A member of the Foreign Service serving abroad at a post at which a furnished residence is not provided will receive a rent allowance sufficient, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable furnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges. Alternatively, in special cases approved by the Secretary of State, an officer may be provided with a rent allowance sufficient to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable unfurnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges, in which cases, under the provisions and within the limits of paragraph 14 of Regulation No. 21, he is entitled to claim the cost of transporting his own furniture to his post.

Comment :—

(i) The Ministry of Works Regulations regarding Government property will apply in all cases where Government furniture is provided. No charge will be made for the use of Government furniture.

(ii) Branch C officers will not be allowed to claim the cost of transporting furniture (see paragraph 14 (a) of Regulation No. 21).

(iii) An officer who wishes to transport his furniture to a post at public expense must apply for prior authority to do so. The cost of transport will not be allowed unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that unfurnished accommodation is available at the post at a reasonable rent.

2. The rent allowance becomes payable from the day when an officer arrives at his post unless he is granted a subsistence allowance, in which case it becomes payable when this allowance terminates. Subject to paragraph 4 below, rent allowance ceases to be payable on the day on which the officer leaves his post on termination of his appointment.

3. An officer who is unable to find suitable accommodation immediately on arrival at his new post may be allowed to claim, in lieu of foreign and rent allowances, subsistence allowance for himself and for each member of his family (including servants) for whom fares are payable from public funds, for a period not normally exceeding 28 days and at the rates specified in paragraph 10(b) of Regulation 21. A married officer other than one in Grades 1 to 4 in Branch A who is appointed for duty in the Foreign Office after appointment abroad will receive subsistence allowance for the first 28 days.

4. Where an officer who has been granted a rent allowance is transferred to another post otherwise than at his own request and can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his residence, he will be allowed to claim, as compensation for the rent for which he is liable, a sum which shall not exceed the rent allowance previously granted to him, for a period which will be determined by the Secretary of State but which will not exceed three months except in special cases.

5. An officer who has been granted a rent allowance may receive that allowance during periods of authorised absence if the Secretary of State is satisfied that he has not been able to sub-let.

Comment:—

Officers who rent accommodation must furnish a certificate from the Head of the Diplomatic Mission or the Superintending Consular Officer—as the case may be—that they have made the most economical arrangements consistent with their rank and requirements. They must themselves defray any additional expenditure on rent which may be caused by maintaining larger or more expensive establishments than are necessary. They must also endeavour to obtain a clause (known as a “diplomatic clause”) in any lease which will enable them to terminate it at short notice in the event of transfer before its expiry. In the case of a tenancy agreement which does not already provide for termination at short notice, an agreement should be made in writing with the lessor to enable the tenancy to be terminated before its expiry if the lessee is transferred.

REGULATION No. 23 LANGUAGE ALLOWANCES

After five years the allowance will be discontinued unless the officer qualifies.

9. An officer may, at any time, receive only one continuation allowance under the provisions of this regulation.

Comment:—

- (i) Officers of Branches A and B may be allowed tuition fees on a reasonable scale for the study of the languages specified in paragraph 3 above, and in certain circumstances for the study of other languages. The approval of the Secretary of State must be obtained for the course of study proposed before expenditure is incurred. Candidates for allowances payable to officers of Branch D and of Grade 1 of Branch C will normally be required to pay their own tuition fees, but in certain cases where a knowledge of the language is certified as essential, tuition fees may be allowed to officers of Grade 1 of Branch C for the following languages:—

German	Portuguese
Italian	Spanish

Should an officer of Grade 1 of Branch C resign before the end of the tour of duty in respect of which tuition fees have been paid, the Secretary of State may, at his discretion, call upon her to refund the fees in question. Tuition fees may be claimed only once in respect of each language.

- (ii) Unless, on reappointment, he is in receipt of the relevant continuation allowance, it will be necessary for an officer of Branch A or Branch B to requalify for a full allowance in respect of the languages specified in paragraph 3 above after an absence of more than five years from a country where the allowance is payable. It will be necessary for an officer of Branch B to requalify for an allowance in respect of any other language after an absence of more than two years from a country where the allowance is payable.

- (iii) Except in special cases, an allowance is payable only where the language concerned is the official language of the country.
- (iv) Examinations are held abroad and in London, as necessary, not more often than once in six months. No officer of Grade 1 of Branch C will be allowed to take part in an examination unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that she is required to make use of the knowledge of the language in her official duties.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

* Original Exequatur as Consul issued 21 Aug. 1950.

† By virtue of article 26 of the Convention of the Economic Union between Belgium and Luxembourg dated July 25, 1921, the defence of the Luxembourg interests is entrusted to the Belgian Consular Agents in those regions where the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg has not appointed its own Consular Agents.

Under an arrangement of 6-7th January, 1880, between the Governments of Luxembourg and the Netherlands, Luxembourg diplomatic representation is entrusted to the Netherlands diplomatic agents in countries where Luxembourg has not appointed its own diplomatic agents. The diplomatic representation of the Grand Duchy by Netherlands diplomatic agents does not in principle extend to Luxembourg political affairs.
